

---

Title: Cupid's Arrow 2012

Author: Yew Town Council

---

After 8 pm eastern time, we will have an auction for baskets that single ladies have put a few items that describes themselves into a basket. People will bid on the basket of the unknown woman for a dinner date or something they both agree on.

The funds used via the auction and bids will be prize support for the archery contest that will start later tonight as the second and last event.

Plenty of food and drinks for all throughout.